Applicants are expected to demonstrate to the required level their English Language capability. There are a number of ways this can be achieved. Applicant can;

1. Reach a satisfactory standard in an approved test in English as outlined in the 'Middlesex University Approved English Language Tests' List, or
2. Offering the successful completion of a full Bachelors or Masters degree from an approved University that has been taught and assessed in English, or
3. Being a national of a majority English speaking country if during the application process it has been demonstrated that they are able to understand all facets of English competencies to the required level, or
4. Completing a suitable Pre-Sessional Academic English language course validated or approved by Middlesex University.

Majority English-speaking countries are defined as follows: Antigua and Barbuda, Australia, the Bahamas, Barbados, Belize, Canada, Dominica, Grenada, Guyana, Ireland, Jamaica, New Zealand, St Kitts and Nevis, St Lucia, St Vincent and the Grenadines, Trinidad and Tobago, United Kingdom and USA.

Approved Universities are:

1. Any University accredited by a government of a majority English speaking country.
2. Universities and Community Colleges based in Hong Kong and Singapore.

Many English Language Qualifications have an expiry date. These tests will only be considered if they are valid at the point of entry.

Some programmes with professional registration requirements may exceed the University's requirements and must also be met.

Exemptions granted by test providers for applicants with disabilities, who cannot demonstrate all four competencies of English language, will normally be taken into consideration and accepted at the point of admission.
